Thanks! Do you know about how long it takes you to get to JFK from your apt? I'm just trying to gauge what time Jojo should pick you up.

Hi Karina,

Jeffrey would like for Jojo to take you to the airport on Sunday morning, that way he can just bring all the items you need to bring with you in the car and give to you then. Just wanted to give you the heads up and to ask you for your address so I can organize with Jojo. thanks!
