sounds good to me...If there is a file cabinet in the 5th Floor office =erhaps that is good. Put the key in an envelope and then in a file =abeled: "Key's to Martin Nowak's Institute". (I would keep them out =f the Oval Office closet cause it is a disaster and I don't like the =hought of important items being kept in the Oval Office where lots of =isitors come in and out of all the time.)
