Ok no worries. You're phone is acting weird btw. When you call it rings, then some lady asks to enter the number you're trying to reach then press pound. When you do, it says it doesn't understand and to re enter the number. Strange.

Hi [REDACTED]. Just checking in if you were able to speak to GM about coming down to LSJ next week Wed or Thursday. Let me know if I should book your ticket. You can fly back to NY with JE on Sunday.
