yes. it was a custom ordered one, so won't be here for about 2 more =eeks would be my guess.
Here is the link to the one we ordered with the dimensions. It also has = built in electrical outlet in the medicine cabinet, so we will need to =e able to hook that up.

I believe███gave the dimensions to someone so they could make the hole =or it with the correct dimensions and once it arrived, we could just =tick it in.
Since it's pretty tall, the electrical box above the hole for the =abinet needed to be moved up. ███and I spoke to Jam?(sorry, forgot his =ame) about this
