Carolina,
Please see the photos below of the =ew cushions from Casa Vera which are obviously wrong.

When Rich And I questioned the price difference from =he first order you said that the prices increased. But it now looks like the size changed as =ell, which would explain the additional cost.

We =onfirmed with you that the new ones were in fact the same size as the =lder ones but it does not look like you confirmed it =ith Casa Vera.

Artefacto needs to correct this as =oon as possible. They look ridiculous like this.
Gregory

Hi Gregory,

Jeffrey is asking why the =ushions on top of the outdoor coffee tables in PB are so thick?

They are meant to look like this:
