May I have your date of birth so I can book the Delta flight from NY to STT? There is only one seat left on this flight and I want to snag it for you!

I will work on transfer details for you as well.

It's a shame Jacob won't be able to make it this time, but we will be glad to have you both in New Mexico.

Sarah,

I am able to come for Saturday & Sunday...

Can I just this flight make sense, and that you can organise the helicopter or boat transfers?

Arriving on the Delta flight from JFK to STT which gets in at 152pm Saturday

On Sunday, it is OK to depart from St. Maarten as the flights from STT are not convenient for onwards to Hong Kong?

Jacob sadly can't make it this weekend. It is his father's birthday in Munich but he will come to New Mexico in a couple of weeks.

Best wishes,

Ian
