I'm not sure yet what my schedule is going to be. I have 2 boxes of your =lothes I was going to send out, and a bag with more breakable/valuable =hings I don't want to ship(lobster, jade mask, Cartier watch,etc) Your =iano and bull skull are at 71st, so I would have to bring those back =ever if you wanted those. Obviously the piano will have to be shipped at =ome point, or brought down on the plane if that ever happens.

You said before you aren't making your decision to come based on me, but =hen you got mad because I didn't try and stay in NY when I was due to =eave very early morning the next day for work. I feel like you keep =rying to have tidbits of communication, but nothing of substance. You =end me a photo of your hospital tray "by accident" on 2/8/12. The =aperwork on the tray was dated 2/7/12. It doesn't seem like you would =end someone a photo of day old food and say "food finally". If you =anted me to know you were in the hospital, just tell me. You still =aven't responded to my long email. You don't seem interested in talking =bout or addressing some serious issues that concern me. I can't ignore =hem. If you can't address them right now or don't want to talk about =t, then that's fine, but then I need some space. I can't keep playing =hese games.
