Subject: Interviews at Mt. Sinai closed

Dear Applicants,

We would like congratulate all of you for your decision to pursue residency positions for advanced training in general practice dentistry. Mt. Sinai, New York has now completed invitations for interviews of selected prospective applicants. Please note that we routinely receive far more "qualified applicants" than those we are able to select for interviews. For those of you who may not have yet been invited for interviews, please do not feel discouraged. Dental Residency applications continue to be at their highest levels and applicants to open position ratios remain highly competitive.

Please be assured of our best wishes as you pursue excellence in the provision of dental care.

David Andrews
