Hello,

The price for the certified translation for Friday of 5(?) pages is $700.

The translator will try and have everything done of Friday. I told her about the priorities that Karyna gave me and those (breast ultrasound, font color="#1F497D" face="Calibri">mammography, blood test) will be the first translations delivered Friday morning. The others will follow with the objective of everything by 6:30 PM.

Karyna said that I have her OK for the price.

But now that you know what it is, please send your K.

Regards,

Lenora
