Patty is asking if she could have the names of who will be in each room...Jeffrey will have a suite and she is also asking if he would like one of the rooms connecting to the suite...she says if she can have the names it will speed up the checking-in process and she highly recommends it...she is also recommending that you use the hotels transportation from the airport to the hotel (she can send 2 SUV's) that way she can have someone greet the party and hand over the DEF CON tickets, tickets to the shows, etc.

Patty is leaving for vacation on Saturday, but her assistant will be around to fill in...she will provide me his information soon and I will pass on to you.

when you can, ask JE about the above questions and get back to me. thank=!
