hi sarah,

..how are you? i hope =everything is fine..

i was e-mailing jeffery last week about if =e do any project soon, and he said something like going to the island =uesday(today).., but then i told him that if i go island then i have to =o romania from there because i will not be able to comeback in us =ecause i dont have visa in my passport. to put visa in my =assport i have to go american embassy in romania with approved papers =f the o1 visa...

anyway, the thing is he didn't answer back =fter that. then i e-mailed him again.. like two days ago, and i =sked him if he want me to start any project in ny, or go island, or if =e doesnt want to do any project for the moment i can go romania to put =isa in my passport and then comeback .

he didnt answer =ack... maybe he didnt get my e-mail or he just forgot..

can you =lease ask him about this? if he doesnt have any project in mind for =ow, maybe i can just go romania and finish the visa issue.

=hank's a =ot,
