Larry, can you please call me about the heli leather and carpet samples. JE said he wants to see them on the plane to get a sense what the carpet will look like on a heli. not sure when this can happen.. I'm guessing it would be best for him to see in the daylight

The leather samples are for sure with JE.. they went with him on the plane last night. The book is probably in the same bag as the samples. They are in a white canvas tote bag that has LSJ on it along with some chocolate brown carpet samples for the heli
