hey wendy.. JE is asking for a photo of the sample against the baseboard standing further back, so he can see more of the wall to see perspective of sizing. He says currently it looks like the frame sample is too thin and will need to be wider.

How many inches wide is it?

Also, JE is wondering how the last trip with Brice went on the ranch?

Hi [REDACTED]

Here is the new sample of frame from Village Frame Crafters. The price is $1000.00 for construction and $265.00 for stretching the canvas. It will take one week to construct.

Please let me know how to proceed.

Wendy
