I'm thinking of buying= this painting for either myself or gift for B. If I get for myself, do you t=ink I can get away with it in the living room, or should it be above bed in=bedroom? I know B already likes it. I sent him a text with a photo of it wh=n I saw it. Just not sure if it's too much for my walls. If so, I think I m=y get for him
