Hey [REDACTED],

I DON'T smoke!!! I am aging fast enough already so not about to add cigs to the mix and speed up the process :-P

Josh doesn't smoke either and even then he is hardly at the apartment.

I have also smelled smoke and it always comes and goes and has for as long as I have been living there. (My mom would always complain about smoke coming from the vents when they stayed!)

I just have a few more things to move which I may not be able to get moved out until the weekend of May 12/13 - is this ok?

Hope you're well, Sarie!

DB

Hey DB! I have a silly question..Anthony Barrett was telling me that the tenant in 12P was complaining about cigarette smoke coming into their apt. Since you are below them, Anthony asked me if you smoke. I told him no, but that I would ask anyways! Josh doesn't smoke does he?
