Hey [REDACTED]

All is fine= I am planning to take a photo but the weather is awful so I hope to have s=me sun tomorrow.

I am waiting on Jermaine to get photo paper this=morning for one of the printers in the office that wil be able to print lar=e enough photos for the frames that we packed. JE is going to select ones t=at he wants me to print and I will start doing it at FTC today.

The rug sample looks so great! But I haven't had chance to discuss it w=th him yet. I hope he likes it. It just seems to pull everything together i= there. Great find!

JE seems happy with Frances' food :)

Hey [REDACTED]. While you are in island, can you try a=d take a photo for 71st dining room with your camera, ask him about the blu= sisal rug sample for chill bath, and I'm not sure if they put all the phot= frames we wrapped into 5 Palms, but maybe we need to see if we'll need to p=int more photos to replace some of the ones in the frames.

How is everything going there?
