Subject:	Wait Listing Seat

I have been told by Open Skies and AMex that wait listing a seat is not =ossible (wait listing a flight is...not a particular seat) Amex =uggests on the day of the flight to start calling that morning and =articularly a few hours before the flight...that is usually when people =ecide not to take a trip and cancel their ticket...since these seats =re fully refundable, they tend to cancel the day of...

I will call tonight and check on the seat from time to time =omorrow...can you please check on it come Saturday?

Is this information we want to pass on to JE or just keep trying for =im?=?xml version=.0" encoding=TF-8"?> <!DOCTYPE
