Advise To Passengers On Limitations Of Liability For international travel to or from another country, airline liability is g=verned by the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention. There are no financial limits for death or bodily injury, and the airline m=y make an advance payment to cover immediate economic needs. The airline's liability for passenger delay; and for loss, delay or damage =o baggage may be limited by the Conventions. In case of, baggage, the liability limit is 1131 Special Drawing Rights (approximately US $1787)=per passenger for international travel. The baggage limit is US $3,500 per ticketed passenger for US domestic travel. These baggage liability limi=ations apply unless you declare a higher valuation and pay additional charges at check-in. In case of international travel, any action in court t= claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of the actual or scheduled arrival of the aircraft; and, in case of baggage claims= written notice to the carrier must be made within 7 days of the receipt of checked baggage in case of damage, and, in case of delay, within=21 days from the date on which it was placed at the disposal of the passenger. If your journey also involves carriage by other airlines, yo= should contact them for information on their limits of liability. See the notice with your tickets or consult your airline or travel agent fo= further information.
