No that is not a glass tile, it is ceramic that is meant to look like glass.

If I place the order tomorrow, can I still get everything delivered on Tuesday?

Great.. how late are you there today? I'm just confirming if Karyna wants the fixtures and which vanity. Hoping to finalize the order before the end of the day!

Thank you so much! If we wanted to get the white vanity you have in stock and not buy the sink, is that possible? I think we would try and find a white ceramic sink that would fit in the vanity instead elsewhere.
