Good Morning [REDACTED]
Do=you still need is to ship to more cases of mirror mastic? The one case s=ould be plenty enough. I did speak with Tom (the architect) and he did m=ention he was going to try the local home depot and haven't heard fr=m him since. If we ship two more cases the cost is actually going to be a=ound $205 which does not include the price for the mastic. My suggestion=would be to see if there is anything locally that would be able to provi=e mirror adhesive although I do know it is very limited in the VI. Pleas= let me know what you would like to do.

Thank you!

Hello again,
There wasn't enough glue sent down for the m=rrors. They are asking for 2 more cases. I'm not sure how large or heavy=this would be to determine the best way of getting it to St.Thomas?
