Good Morning [REDACTED]

Do you still need is to ship to more cases of mirror mastic? The one =ase should be plenty enough. I did speak with Tom (the architect) and he did mention he was going to try the local home depot and haven't heard =rom him since. If we ship two more cases the cost is actually going to be around $205 which does not include the price for the mastic. My suggestion =ould be to see if there is anything locally that would be able to provide mirror adhesive although I do know it is very limited in the VI. Please let me =now what you would like to do.

Thank you!

Hello again,

There wasn't enough glue sent down for the mirrors. They are asking for = more cases. I'm not sure how large or heavy this would be to determine =he best way of getting it to St.Thomas?
