All things Brice asked for are in the downstairs kitchen. Lynn has a list I=printed for her of all things that need to go on the plane and i showed he= where it all can be found.

Snacks for plane are in =he smaller cooler and the bag in that cooler is the food for the pilots. i=s all labeled right on the containers.

[REDACTED] - I will check in with you on Monday if that's=OK, and we can talk about what days I am meant to take off and then when I=will return to work to star prepping for LSJ.

I hope JE was happy for the most part. We still have some tuning up to do w=th service and so on but I am confident it will all come together. Thank=you for the help this week.

Francis
