Hi Daphne. Looks like the shipment landed with Tropical yesterday. But our shipping office is asking for the Booking number? Can you send that when you have a moment, and your contact's name and email. Seems Tropical will only speak to our shipping department if we have the booking number. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Megan

Greetings Megan,

Yes, confirming that the orders are shipping to the island of St. Thomas, and LSJE, LLC will need a commercial invoice, stating the Country of Origin for all of the items purchased.

It would facilitate Tropical Shippings' records if you could Consign the invoices to LSJE, LLC - ST. THOMAS. The name of the company is just LSJE, LLC, but it is easier for Tropical if the name of the island is stated with the name as well.

Thank you and kind regards, Daphne

Hi Daphne

Is this shipping to an island from you and will you need a commercial invoice to get it on the island?

Hi Brice,

Please see attached quote & tear sheets for your review. In regards to freight is a lift gate and/or inside delivery needed?

Based on today's inventory I have stock of Brush Stroke Oyster and Glacial Polar White is on back-order. Next shipment arrives in September. In order to secure materials a 50% deposit would be required. Does this fit in your project's time frame?

Thanks,

Molly
