Subject: New Membership Director at Priority Private Care

Dear Karyna,

I'm excited to introduce myself as the new Membership Director at Priority Private Care. I come with over five years of experience in membership and hospitality from NeueHouse, a private high-end workspace and cultural center for creative entrepreneurs.

Being a member of PPC should feel like having a family full of doctors. So please don't hesitate to contact me or our team with anything you might need. Whether it's a medical inquiry, a membership question, or anything else, no concern is too small, and no issue is too great. If something can be done, I'm here to make it happen.

As a reminder, membership is more than exclusive access to immediate 24/7 emergency level care - we have a network of over 500 leading specialists as well as advocacy and counseling resources around a wide range of topics from women's health and wellness to elder and infant care.

I am committed to creating a personalized and caring experience for you and your family, and in order to get to know you and gain a better understanding of your needs, I would love to find the opportunity to connect with you over the next 30 days.

All my best,
Sarah
