I believe the receipt and de tax form are in my room either in the night =tand drawer, or in one of the drawers under the TV in my room. It's in =n envelope that should say detax or something like that.
It is under my name already with my passport number, etc, so I'm not =ure it will work for you to do it, but you can try. There is a place at =he airport before you check in where you show them the form and your =icket and they stamp the form, then you have to mail it out; there =hould be a mail box/post office near where they stamp it.
As far as customs coming into US, be sure to remove all the price tags =rom the items, and don't bring any receipts back with you that show the =rice if they check(I've never had them check before). That way, you can =ut whatever value you want on the form coming in..I think the form says =he max amount residents are allowed to bring in..
Let me know if you can't find the receipt and detax form

I also need to check of how much =alue I am allowed to take through customs. Do you by any chance know =here the receipt is for the Dior things?
