Hi [REDACTED]

Are we staining the floors in 10F country =hite also? Also the building is paying for the installation of the =loor and I guess you are paying for the staining country white, so I =ave attached the bill for this without the bedroom. Also I have =ttached th bill for apt # 10B.

Thanks =br>
Colette

Andrew agrees that it's OK to go =head and at least start pulling up the floor today so it can dry =ut. We will try and sort out the rest between us and let you know =ow to proceed

I'm waiting to hear back from Andrew, the super, to =onfirm the building will be =aking care of the cost of repairs since I'm guessing =br> it was a structural issue =hat caused the leak.

It seems =uite expensive to replace the current flooring. Is there =br> perhaps a different =lternative that would be less expensive; a different type of wood flooring =erhaps?

Also, the bedroom =oesn't need to be done in this apt..we will be =br> carpeting =t.

Has =ndrew Lasso, the super intendant for the building gotten in =br> touch =ith you regarding working on the floors in 10F? We had some =br> issues =n the flooring there where there was a leak and it caused =br>
the =loor to swell with huge mounds, so they had to remove alot of =br> the =looring to flatten it down again. It's a bit of a mess. That's =br> the =pt we want worked on next after 10B and I asked Andrew to =br> schedule=this with you and just wanted to see if he =as?
