Good Morning Ladies,

I will be sending on the plane the Pottery Barn Slip Covers, which were the wrong size. I have confirmed that they can be returned to a Pottery Barn store even if they were purchased on line. A store credit will most likely occur. They must be returned by the 20th to receive a full credit. Brice was going to take them to the Ranch on Monday, but he is no longer going to NM. Sorry about the hassle

Thank you very much

Warmest regards
