Subject: Question..

Hi Dr. Wheeler!

I have a question for you.. last time I saw you, you mentioned you could help me with a letter to get the Social Security office to change my last name on my Social Security card without having a court order. I have everything now in my new last name, passport, driver's license, credit cards, bank account, but the only thing left is Social Security card which they will not change for me without a court order or marriage certificate. It does no good showing them my old and new passports, IDs, etc to prove the name change. Can you help?

All the best,
