Dear Alex,

We assume we are not the first to be surprised at a Christies Broker suggesting payment to a trust in the BVI re shares in a Lichtenstein co with no due diligence, no guarantees, no insurance, no title, relating to property in Morocco and bank accounts in the United States in an attempt to avoid both capital gains and transfer tax. The lawyers dont know where to begin as well, as the date in the contract refers to August of 2017. So this contract was drafted years ago and it appears no one was willing to sign, is that correct?

Thank you.

Best regards,

I am sure you are aware that this "real estate contract" is highly irregular for Americans. 1. It is not a real estate contract, it is a purchase of an offshore entity, creating many complexities for Americans.

2. There was never any discussion about real estate fees on top of the price. We have bought many properties, including through Christies and a commission was always paid by seller.

3. The due diligence on a lichtenstein co. will take months.

4. We would have to be indemnified for all taxes due to moroccan government on transfer and unknown liabilities of the co., especially as you might imagine, this purchase would be very high profile.

5. Is there a title on file= who would guarantee title transfer? If Christies is willing that might work.

6. We were hoping for a quick closing. With this structure it is not possible, and money would need to be withheld for years to back up the indemnity. It is very disappointing. We are told that liabilities would extend approx 7 years, so a payment of 10m day one and 2 million per year for 8 years might work. There clearly is no perfect title transfer under your proposed structure. Four jurisdictions, real estate and corporate and disclosure rules in each. Can you make a suggestion?

Thank you.

The vendor will not acc=pt less than 25m euros net to him - our agency fees can either be paid by y=u or by the vendor but if he pays then the price would need to be 26m euros=

We have a list o= what items he intends to remove - it is not much but for example there is a=Gauguin in the bedroom which of course he will remove - I will get this lis= and sent it to you.

If you would like to discuss any of the above over the tel=phone please let me know a convenient time to call you.

Dear Alex,

As you may already know, we are in negotiation on another property, so please provide as much info as you can, as soon as you are able to. Taxes on transfer, estimated closing costs, inspections, timeline frame. Has a recent MEP survey been done? Have the roofs been examined? Is it in as is form, is there due diligence that has been done on sellers co.=

=div dir="ltr" class="">Thank you.

Best regards,

Karyna

This is not true. Marc (my business partner you met) flew to Italy yesterday and is currently with the owner, he has a written offer=@ 29m euros but with one complication. The owner is not well and does not want to wait for this to be resolved so for a very quick deal I am told he would accept 25m euros.
