Window glass person I guess had an accident so he had not come back to work yet so now he recommended someone else so supposedly it will be done by next week.

Windows were washed but the far right LR window has moisture in between the panels so it can't be cleaned.

It seems that the sliding glass interior windows were not washed on the back-side (side facing street) but Andrew said his guys are not window washers so they did what they could and we are responsible for the rest.

Added three doorstops
Front door
Door to bedroom (so handle won't hit against small closet door) Bathroom door

Still waiting in the brass security door piece
