Karyna-

I met with Andre= yesterday as no work had been done on Monday 2/5 as he had promised. He to=d me that he had found out that the guys had been scheduled for vacation ti=e, so he confirmed they would be back in apt today but this morning he text=d me to say they wont be back in until Monday 2/11 - I will go there again o= Monday and hopefully they can finish up, I think there is about 3 - 4 days=work left. Honestly I have never worked in a building that has such a=poor response to getting work done.
