Ok

I suggest everyone forward any positive searches to sue and I

We will review

[REDACTED] will then make contact with breeder and get photos from breeder to forward to Jeffrey

If Jeffrey decides he likes puppies

Then someone should go and view at kennel

Does this work for everyone

Good idea, I think we need to make a plan of action.

What is the best way to go about it? I would think it would be to source breeders that breed the fawn color, find out if they have at the moment, or when they are born and what age they leave the mother. I think one of us will have to go out and see them to take pictures for him and give him an opinion.
