Hey miss bella..

Would you be able to set up an =ppointment with Time Warner for them to come sort out the cable and =internet in apt 8A? When they did the floors and painting in there, it =essed everything up. There is currently a huge pile of cable wire all =rapped up sitting in the hallway which needs to be brought around to =he living room and hooked up to the TV. this will require them to have =o attach the wire up and over the closet and a few doorways, around to =he living room to reach the TV..

Also, do you remember the outcome =ith 11P internet? I know they had to return to fix it before.. do we =eed Scott to go in to set up the wireless? I don't remember what =appened in the =nd
