Hi ladies!

You are my two pescetarians and will also be sitting at the same table. We are not doing assigned seats but at each place setting will be a menu, two of the menu's at the table will be just for you guys. I am sure you can figure out which one once you guys have sat down. I am not placing the menus, the restaurant is, so sit at whichever seat you want, and then just trade the menu Kathryn Kucka
