It makes no sense at all! I don't appreciate him saying clearly my foc=s is no longer on his needs or requirements. So unfair. Just because I don=t want to play the role of wife anymore and be at his side 24/7. I'm not s=re how, or if,I should respond.

I'm always making sure everything is set for him. He traveled yesterda= and I basically coordinated everyone, told them what they needed to do to=prepare, what they needed to send with him, etc..from Bahrain! And, the pa=t about last week being "the toughest" of the year. For last weekend, I asked him if he needed me..he said no. So=I went to New Hampshire for the race. I even said I'm happy to stay if he =eeded anything. And on Tuesday, I didn't bring it up or ask to go on Tuesd=y..he did and insisted on it! I was the one being hesitant to leave. But I'm sure it will do no good remin=ing him of these things. So frustrating.

I accept the idea of =our proposal with great sadness. I am always available for you=, when and if you need advice or help. As your focus is clearly no longer on my needs or requirements we should train someone a= soon as possible . Though this week was known for month= as going to be the toughtest of the year ---- you were sorely misse=. hope you are haveing fun
