Cool beans, congrats to B!=/div>

I may be Vegas on 9th with new guy or go to a golf tournament wit= Larry V, then palm Springs 10-13 for the AOPA aviation event and then I go= invited to fly on AOPA jet to Vegas on 13th again...this is with the VP i m=t last week, but I'm concerned he might make a move and the whole business c=llaboration will be out the window. On one hand it is sort of a bonding, tr=st-building oppotunity for potential biz partner, but for a girl it's more c=mplicated... not sure how to think about it... What do you think?
