They are meant to be in building already moving the people out of 3M to a di=ferent apt, then they were going to do us around 11am. I left a voicemail f=r him, Danny the mover to see if they are still going to be there. Will let=you know when/if I hear back. Will also try Andrew. Also, sent Andrew an em=il regarding me having a planter on my terrace that the building probably w=uld want to bring in, but got no response. It's pretty heavy with dirt, so n=t sure it's necessary to bring in or not
