There is nothing for them to do r=ght now in living room.

I got the sample. I think it loo=s really good..I may even go a tinge lighter, but want to see the sample=in the daylight, I only saw it at night. I would like to wax the living =oom, but not bedroom.

hi ■■■,

..i was thinking.., wouldn't be better if the workers =ould concentrate to the living room so i can i can do the bedroom this wee=? in the mean time they can finish the living room and then they can paint=the closets in the bedroom and i can do the living room. in this way i thi=k it would be faster and besides i dont have anything to do now..

=3Bi can prime the bedrom and do couching..it would take like one day..not =ne week..
what do you think?
thanks, =nbsp; io=
ps. i left the sample with the doorman.
&nb=p; i didn wax the sample..i didnt have wax, ..it woud be same =ust shinier

If you =ant to bring by the new sample tomorrow, great! You can definitely start=to mix the color for the bedroom. My contractor said he will be painting t=e closets and priming bedroom this coming week, so you should be able to=start plaster next Monday
