There is nothing for them to do right now in living room.

I got the sample. I think it looks really good..I may even go a tinge lighter, but want to see the sample in the daylight, I only saw it at night. I would like to wax the living room, but not bedroom.

hi [REDACTED],

..i was thinking.., wouldn't be better if the workers would concentrate to the living room so i can do the bedroom this week? in the mean time they can finish the living room and then they can paint the closets in the bedroom and i can do the living room. in this way i think it would be faster and besides i dont have anything to do now..

i can prime the bedroom and do couching..it would take like one day..not one week..

thanks,

&nbs=; ion

ps. i left the sample with the doorman.

i didn't wax the sample..i didn't have wax, ..it would be same just shinier

If you want to bring by the new sample tomorrow, great! You can definitely start to mix the color for the bedroom. My contractor said he will be painting the closets and priming bedroom this coming week, so you should be able to start plaster next Monday

hi [REDACTED],

if you are in the city tomorrow, i can bring the sample.. just let me know what time.&nbs=;

..and if they installed the cabinets in the closet, maybe i should buy the materials and mix the color, etc ..that's going to take some time eventually.. if they didn't prep(primed) the walls yet, i could do that, its not a big deal.. just that's going to take like one=day..
