hi [REDACTED].

..i cannot work tomorrow(monday) because they are going to install the floor. they said they are going to be done with the floor in one day so i will be there tuesday morning 9:30.

are you going to be in town? i would like you to see the venetian plaster i put on the wall in living room. i made it a little lighter then the sample you saw..because putting wax on it and burnishing it will make it even darker... anyway, i made a little sample with wax on it and burnished in case you are here now. its in the bedroom near the old sample for living room you saw..
