thanks! most of these things are great! I will resend you the links of =hings I like and you can help me with quantities, or we can just try =nd speak on the phone on Friday. I will also be back in NY this =unday/Monday. I went into Christofle as well and really liked the =ertigo stuff. I took some photos of things that stood out to me. I'm =ot loving the flatware you sent, but I did see a few other sets at =hristofle I really like.

I also went by 7 West 34th st and =aw a few cool things and got some catalogs which I've been going =hrough picking out some things.. will send you photos =oo.

How was it cooking for =M?

Hi [REDACTED]

Just wanted to touch =ase on where i am at with things this week. I have cooked for two days =or Ms Maxwell, monday and tuesday. I spent today getting things ready =o send off to LSJ, Stew and steaks and some equipment.

At 71st we have started going through all the old =lates and making room for the new plates in the kitchen.
When can we =xpect to see the new plates?

I would need your help to =igure out what stays and what goes as far as whats there and maybe find =ew homes for a few things... some sets are missing alot of peices, some =re kind of dated, and some are fine to still use.

Here are a few things I found that might be good to =ave around for snacks and dinners to switch things up a bit.
You have =he great eye for this stuff and know what works in the =ouse.

To recap our conversation i thought it would be nice to go =owards a classic but modern kind of feel. Elleven Madison Park, Corton, =ean Goerges all do this really well. =nbsp;

Bernardaud has this line i thought =ooked interesting (the fruit dish, gravy boat, Sugar bowl and =reamer)
