It's weird. There is so much excess of everything. So many hotels, apt build=ngs, office buildings. They just keep building building building. We went t= a hotel sultan owns with all these amazing restaurants; an Italian one, Ch=nese one, morracan, a French bakery looking sweet place. And there was no o=e in them. We saw like 4 people by the pool and maybe 4 people in the lobby=near all the restaurants. We ate in the Chinese one for lunch and the food w=s amazing. I just don't know how they keep building and producing so much w=th no substance if people around.
