Subject: Gift for JE missing

Hi all

A friend of JE's, [REDACTED] has sent him a gift= She says she can see that it was delivered on the 25th of January at 9.38=m, but the problem is the post office have it as signed for by 'T.Roma='!?
The address she was using was what JE had given her which was the corr=ct address for 71st , just written in JE writing - '9 east 71 nyny 10021'

Has anyone seen anything or able to give me s=me advice on how to continue my search.

I am going to come to 71st to have a look aro=nd and make sure it has not been misplaced and have asked [REDACTED] to send me the tracking =umber so that I can also call the post office directly.

Thank you
