Hi all

A friend of JE's [REDACTED] has sent him a gift. She says she can see that it was delivered on the 25th of January at 9.38am, but the problem is the post office have it as signed for by 'T.Roman'!?

The address she was using was what JE had given her which was the correct address for 71st , just written in JE writing - ' 9 east 71 nyny 10021'

Has anyone seen anything or able to give me some advice on how to continue my search.

[REDACTED] I am going to come to 71st to have a look around and make sure it has not been misplaced and have asked to send me the tracking number so that I can also call the post office directly.

Thank you
