Yes, the wooden table that was in the kitchen to the info center.

JE said he just wants to use the same brown woven chairs that were in the tiki hut before that matches the brown woven table(all from restoration hardware), so no need to buy new chairs..

unless you have ordered out door dining chairs lately, then it would be completely new order Jeffrey did mention that he wanted something different from the woven brown.
Confirming it's the rustic wooden table we are moving, the one that was up in the kitchen.

OK,

Is this in addition to what we already have, or to replace the existing chairs? You need the whole chairs, not just the cushions?
