I =on't know why.. I argued with them for an hour that it didn't make =ense and was completely illogical. I had both my old and new passport =nd old and new license and that wasn't enough.. It's unbelievable. I =ven googled on my phone "legal ways to change your name" and it came up =ith the way I did it.. they won't listen. it's really quite =idiculous

Why?

On Feb 28, 2011, at 02:49 [REDACTED] =rote:

In Santa fe. Pissed off =ocial security won't accept my name change without a court order even =hough my passport and drivers license have been changed. It makes no =ense.
