Has he responded yet? I think maybe the best thing is for me to print them out and put them in front of him.

I sent him this pdf of the flag pole pool kitchen appliances Brice and [REDACTED] picked out. I think they all look good. JE needs to confirm if he is OK with them.

He didn't respond to my question if he's OK with them or not. again, I cannot proceed with purchasing anything if he does not respond.

attached are the GE units we are looking at. the prices are from home depot here ,emad priced them out from the states for 570 less but I would spend the difference .buying local eliminates us being responsible for damage.

our last shipment had the refrigerator,2 dryers and the icemaker all damaged.

the dryer needs to be 208 volt ,every thing else is standard
