=eptune. it's a nemonic for the solar system. Mary=Mercury, Vi=let=Venus, Eyes=Earth, etc. The whole thing is Mar=s violet eyes make John sit up nights period. That get's you al= nine planets. I don't know where the 'keep' came into play. my sleep=schedule was all sorts of screwed up when i was there so that may be t=e explanation. Anyway stranger, the hint stops at N so i believe=it is neptune. Try it without the initial cap first. if that do=sn't work then try the initial cap. Also, I believe the password=is in that binder i left at HBRK with all the passwords to everything.

Hope all is well with you and tell everyone i said hello.

Hi stranger! I hope all is well.. r=ndom question! Do you by any chance remember what the password to Jeffrey's=imac desktop computer in paris you installed would be? The hint is:

"Mary's violet eyes keeps John up"

None of us know what it could be! Any i=ea?
