Hi Emad,

Je wants me to print some photos for the walls on lsj. I know we have some frames in storage there that hopefully I can use and just print new photos to fit. do you by chance know where they are and could tell me the size of some of the frames? I know we had some colorful plastic frames.. some orange and some blue..

those I think should be in the best condition.. please let me know when you can as I would like to have the photos printed and received before he goes to lsj on sunday. thanks..
