> Sorry this took so long, but the last panoramic photo of the ocean I sent t= you was approved for printing! The only thing is, the large size slice of t=e photo you had printed, the photo was only 54" tall in the sample, when th= actual photo needs to be printed 57" x 530" and there needs to be about a 4= border of blank canvas around the photo to help with the mounting process.=So overall the complete piece of material would be 65" x 538".
